

WOMAN IS PINNED UNDER AUTO, HER SKULL FRACTURED

Hospital Nurse Probably Fatally Injured and Other Passengers Hurt in Collision.

Marquette Baldwin, nineteen, a nurse in Seaview Hospital at Dongan Hills, S. I., was pinned under an overturned automobile and perhaps fatally hurt as a result of a collision at Richmond Avenue and Ambros Road, Tottenville, at 12:15 A. M. to-day.

Miss Baldwin, Miss Catherine Birch, thirty-six, a nurse in the same hospital, and Arthur Eller, twenty-five, of No. 101 West 88th Street, Manhattan, were passengers in an automobile used as a bus by Henry Pfeur. The car hit a machine driven by Helen Dean of Staten Island and turned over.

Miss Birch, Eller and Pfeur were thrown clear of the automobile and escaped with cuts and bruises. When they had lifted the car from Miss Baldwin it was discovered she had a fractured skull. She and the two other passengers were taken to Memorial Hospital, Stapleton. Miss Dean escaped injury. The car overturned largely because of the driver's efforts to avoid the collision.

Funston's Son Nominated for West Point.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—Frederick Funston, the eighteen-year-old son of the late Gen. Frederick Funston, has received notification from Washington that he is one of the two special appointees named by President Harding to take the 1922 entrance examination at West Point Military Academy. It became known to-day.

MISS ALICE AGNEW IS RECOVERING

State Troopers Fail to Get Clue in Mysterious Shooting of Banker's Daughter.

The condition of Miss Alice Agnew, seventeen, only daughter of Cornelius R. Agnew, banker, who was shot yesterday while riding horseback with her brother, Rae, and a groom on her father's country estate at Armonk, a suburb of White Plains, to-day described as excellent. The Presbyterian Hospital, where the bullet was extracted from the muscle at the base of her brain. It was said Miss Agnew will recover rapidly.

State troopers under Serg. McGarvey searched the woods in a radius of two miles soon after the shooting, but found no hunter who was in a location where a stray shot from his gun could have struck Miss Agnew. To-day the troopers had practically given up hope of finding out who the man was. They are satisfied the shooting was an accident, which view is also held by Miss Agnew's father.

Mr. Agnew is ice president of the County Trust Company of White Plains and also vice president of the Farmers Loan and Trust Company of New York City.

Sends $100 Help Pay Pershing's

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 2.—A seventy-year-old woman, who signed herself "Just a Old Friend," has mailed to a local newspaper $100 toward payment of $200 per diem taxes on the Louisiana estate of Gen. John J. Pershing. The 106-acre tract at Roseland, La., is scheduled for sale Sept. 10 unless Gen. Pershing and his brothers and sisters meet the assessment.

FIST DIVISION, A. E. F., TO HAVE 3 DAYS' OUTING.

to Be Guests of L. Gordon Hamersley at Cruger's Island.

The First Division A. E. F., whose members were prouder of the red figure "1" on their shoulders than most soldiers were of the D. S. C., are to have a three-day party at Cruger's Island in the Hudson off Rhinecliff beginning tomorrow morning. L. Gordon Hamersley, who was an officer of the Sixth Artillery in the Division, is giving the party. He has provided a steamer, the John Gully, to take his guests up the Hudson. Every man who can show discharge papers showing that the holder was in the First Division in France, will be welcomed aboard the Gully up to 9 o'clock tomorrow morning when she sails.

Mr. Hamersley has provided everything, even including bathing suits. The programme includes the official moving pictures of the division in action, music by the Club Club, a brass band and continuous boxing bouts and other athletic diversions, with pool tables, cigarette boxes and the like for prizes.

HOSPITAL ORDERLY HELD.

Locked Up After Man Has Skull Fractured in Fight.

A man describing himself as Edward Long, thirty-one, of No. 137 West 98th Street, a hospital orderly, was arrested in front of No. 64 West 98th Street after an altercation in which Christopher McCarty, twenty-one, a mechanic, of No. 111 West 98th Street, received a possible fracture of the skull and was taken unconscious to Knickerbocker Hospital. Long denied he had any part in the argument, in which he said McCarty and two negroes were involved.

VICTIM'S MEMORY OF GUN CAUSES ARREST IN HOLD-UP.

Walter Identified as Man Who Robbed Taxi Cab Driver.

Ever since Monday, when he was held up in the vestibule of No. 215 West 10th Street by a gunman who took $14 from him, then stripped him of his minor valuables, including even his cigarettes, Edward Gondolph of No. 1930 Lexington Avenue, a taxi driver, has had photographed on his mind the automatic revolver used in the hold-up.

This morning at the line-up at Police Headquarters he was afforded an opportunity to pick out the gun.

"That's it!" he exclaimed, indicating one of many guns on a table. "I know it in a million."

Gondolph also identified Frank W. Edell, thirty-one, waiter, of No. 106 West 73d Street as the man who held him up. Detective Stephen Campbell, who arrested Edell last night at Central Park West and 53d Street from Gondolph's description, said he had found the identified gun, fully loaded, in the prisoner's pocket.

Edell was later arraigned in West Side Court charged with robbery.

Two Put to Death One Gets Stay.

While Angelo Giordano and Harry R. Van Reed, an ex-soldier, were put to death in the electric chair in Sing Sing last night, Edward McNally escaped a like fate by a narrow margin when Gov. Miller signed a stay in his behalf until the week of Sept. 12.

LOYAL LABOR LEGION OUTING NEXT MONDAY

Will Be Held at Duer's Park, Whitestone Landing.

The fourth annual outing of the Loyal Labor Legion will be held at Duer's Park, Whitestone Landing, on Labor Day, F. Paul A. Vaccarella, President of the legion, announces that while making merry will be the principal business of the day, there will be a serious underlying side to the outing. To use his words:

"The new constitution demands that organized labor substitute reason for force, that autocracy be eradicated, and that courts of arbitration with power enforce obedience to their decision be created in all States."

Among the speakers will be H. La Guardia, Judge Haskell, Judge John J. Preschi, F. Paul Vaccarella, J. Gustaf, V. Lang, and James H. Gurney, organized labor representative of East Setauket, N. Y.

Miss Mackenzie a Bride.

Miss Jean MacKenzie, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Cameron MacKenzie of Monroe, N. Y., and Kenneth E. Walsor of this city were married yesterday at the home of the bride at Monroe. Only relatives were invited, owing to the recent death of the bride's brother, Cameron MacKenzie, a well-known war correspondent.

RAYMOND HITCHCOCK LOSES HIS $6,500 AUTOMOBILE.

Actor Had Not Paid Notes Given for Car, and in Mean Time Became Bankrupt.

When Raymond Hitchcock had concluded his labor as a comedian in the "Follies" at the Globe Theatre Wednesday night and after changing to street clothes was preparing to roll home early yesterday morning in his automobile, which was waiting outside, he discovered to his consternation that Deputy Sheriff Rooney was attaching the car in a replevin action brought by John F. Heiber, Inc. Despite Hitchcock's protests the deputy sheriff took the automobile to a garage, where it was held in the name of the Sheriff.

The plaintiff asserts that in May Hitchcock traded in a 1920 automobile, valued at $2,000, for a $6,500 car, title to which was to remain with John F. Heiber, Inc., until Hitchcock paid three notes, which he gave for the balance of the purchase price. Hitchcock then went into bankruptcy and the notes, which matured May 30, June 30 and July 30, were not paid. The agency alleges Hitchcock deceived at the time he purchased the car and gave his notes, as he knew that he was insolvent and could not pay them.
